

Reporters needed!

The Global Friend News Agency is seeking teams of reporters. Are you interested in the rights of the child and democracy? Would you like to travel to other countries as a reporter? If so, this is an assignment for you and your team. We promise exciting experiences, but the assignment can also be dangerous and hold great challenges.

Work description

You and your team will travel to one or more countries in the world where this year's World's Children's Prize nominees are located.

Your assignment is to:

- Study this year's WCP candidates, the children they are fighting for and their countries.
- Gain and spread knowledge about democracy and the Rights of the Child.
- Produce interviews, reports, articles, short biographies and letters as well as stories for tv-, radio and the Internet. Your experiences can also be used for an exhibition about the WCP Program and the Global Vote.

Qualifications needed

- You are a good listener good at telling stories – you can write, take photographs/draw and/or record videos/sound.
- You have basic knowledge about the World's Children's Prize Program and child rights.
- You must be able to get to know new people and bring them to talk about themselves. You are a good listener and able to relate people's stories to others.

Applications are to be submitted to the Editor in Chief of the Global News Agency

To be included in the application

- Personal information on everyone in your team.
- Information on your qualifications and the strong side of your team.

Your applications are most welcome!

Global Friend News Agency